The Green Park Hotel 2012 Photography Break.

From Sunday the 19th of February, until the morning of Thursday the 23rd of February, 2012.

David Brown becomes our photographer in residence this February. David has been a professional photographer for the last eighteen years, and is an Associate of the British Institute of Professional Photographers -the United Kingdom's most respected professional photographic organisation. With a background as a military photographer, David is nothing if not flexible with a normal years work ranging from commercial photo shoots, to self run workshops and courses, to trips to war zones and weddings.

David's course is designed for the photographer - novice or otherwise - who would like to improve his or her craft. To allow a sufficient amount of time for both general and individual tuition, numbers for the course are limited to a maximum of eighteen participants, and everyone is encouraged to bring with them any photography that they have carried out to date.

Non-playing guests along for moral support are also welcome, and would just be charged at the hotel's normal tariff for this time of year.
