Duncan and Margo Cursiter have a wide experience of running congresses across the East of Scotland in Berwick, Dunbar, Edinburgh, Glenrothes, Dunfermline and Montrose. Duncan is a National Tournament Director with experience in SBU events and Internationals. Margo teaches bridge classes and with Duncan's help often had over forty participants in her classes. Enjoyment is the main feature they now aim for in the congresses they run, and the classes they instruct.

Sunday the 10th of February.

So as to make the most of your day, please feel free to arrive any time from mid-morning onwards. Complimentary tea, coffee, and biscuits, will be available in the main lounge.

5.30pm.

The first organised activity will be a sherry reception held in the lounges. This will give you an opportunity to meet your fellow bridge students as well as your hosts, Duncan and Margo Cursiter and the McMenemie Family.

6.00pm.

A three course dinner will be served in the dining room, followed by coffee and shortbread in the lounges.

7.30pm.

Bridge session hosted by Duncan and Margo in the dining room.

Monday the 11th of February.

8.30am - 9.45am.

A full Scottish breakfast will be served in the dining room.

2.00pm

Ewen Lamont of Forth Wine will be here to talk you through the mysteries of wine making, and more importantly, wine tasting. Ewen will bring around eight wines for you to taste, and you are invited to indulge yourself - though not too much!

3.30pm.

Bridge tutorial supervised by Duncan and Margo in one of the lounges.

5.30pm.

A pre-dinner sherry reception in the main lounge.

6.00pm.
