The 2019 Music Break with Ian France

“Mozart, Wagner and Richard Strauss”

Formerly Head of Music at Queen Elizabeth Grammar School in Penrith, Ian has established himself as an enthusiastic and entertaining music appreciation expert with a “light touch”. He describes himself as “forever lost in a sea of 19th-century Romanticism!”. With a particular passion for Verdi and Wagner he is much sought after as a lecturer, and comes highly recommended by George Cooke, the Principal of Hingham Hall Educational Trust. Aside from Verdi and Wagner Ian also lectures on Bruckner symphonies, Richard Strauss Tone Poems, Mahler Symphonies, Puccini et al.

In Ian’s own words “ the 2019 break will definitely divide into a day each for three composers - Mozart, Wagner and Richard Strauss including an opera for each, and perhaps some orchestral music as well “. Watch this space!
