Women Artists Through The Ages

From Sunday the 27th of January, until the morning of Thursday the 31st of January

Bertram Aitchison

Bertram Aitchison is a graduate in Art History from Birbeck College in the University of London. He has since worked as Senior Lecturer and Academic Advisor to the American Institute for Foreign Study in London, specialising in Western European Art History. Following his move to Moffat, he has held the position of Secretary to the Dumfries and Galloway Fine Art Society, and resident speaker for the South West of Scotland Art History Society for the last ten years. He is currently the visiting speaker on Art History at Higham Hall in Cumbria.

Non-art lovers, along to provide moral support to those attending the course, are also welcome to stay at this time!

The Art of Royalty

From Sunday the 20th of January, until the morning of Thursday the 24th of January

Sunday the 20th of January

So as to make the most of your day, please feel free to arrive at any time from mid-morning onwards. Complimentary tea, coffee, cakes, and biscuits will be available in our lounges every day from early each morning.

At 6.00pm.

The first organised activity will be a sherry reception to be held in this years Art History room - room 58 on the ground floor of the Tower Wing. This will give you the opportunity to meet your hosts from the Green Park and Bertram Aitchison, as well as your fellow guests. Bertram will go on to outline his plans for the following days.

From 6.30pm - 8.30pm.

A four course dinner will be served in the dining-room, followed by coffee and shortbread in the main lounges.

Monday the 21st of January

8.00am - 9.45am.

A full Scottish breakfast will be served in the dining-room.

10.00am - 12.00 noon. In Tudor Times

Iconic images of the monarchs who ruled in the sixteenth century are interlaced in art with the way they shaped history.

Each day a buffet lunch will be served in the dining room. This lunch will be available between 12.00am and 1.30pm.

Those not on the art course are welcome to join you for lunch as well, and the cost of any lunches they take with you will just be added to their final account.

2.00pm - 4.00pm. The Royal Stuarts

Grandeur and failure have been commemorated in vivid representation of this most prestigious family.

From 6.00pm.

A pre-dinner Sherry reception in the main lounge.

From 6.30pm - 8.30pm.

A four course dinner will be served in the dining room, followed by coffee and shortbread in the main lounge.

Tuesday the 22nd of January

8.00am - 9.45am.

A full Scottish breakfast will be served in the dining-room.

10.00am - 12.00 noon. The French House of Bourbon

The life and times of the Bourbons, from glory to destruction, has been a rich source for artists.

A buffet lunch will be served in the dining room between 12.00am and 1.30pm.

2.00pm - 4.00pm. The Napoleonic Era

The rise of Napoleon Bonaparte to power and Empire from revolutionary beginnings, has a neo-classical heritage in art history.

From 6.00pm.

A pre-dinner Sherry reception in the main lounge.

From 6.30pm - 8.30pm.

A four course dinner will be served in the dining room, followed by coffee and shortbread in the main lounge.

Wednesday the 23rd of January

8.00am - 9.45am.

A full Scottish breakfast will be served in the dining-room.

10.00am - 12.00 noon. The Spanish Succession

A pictorial review of the Spanish Royal Family, leading to their control of the Netherlands and its aftermath.

A buffet lunch will be served in the dining room between 12.00am and 1.30pm.

2.00pm - 4.00pm. Queen Victoria's World

The Queen and Prince Albert influenced the careers of many artists, and added a contemporary perspective to the art of Britain and the Royal Collection.

6.00pm for 6.30pm.

Bert will host an informal bucks-fizz reception in the main lounges. Everyone will have downed tools by now, and this is an excellent opportunity to unwind and enjoy the company of your compatriots.

A four course dinner will then be served in the dining room, followed by coffee and shortbread in the main lounge.

Thursday the 24th of January

8.00am - 9.45am.

A full Scottish breakfast will be served in the dining room.

The McMenemie Family and everyone at the Green Park
hope that you will have enjoyed your stay with us,
and that you have a safe journey home.
