The Green Park Hotel 2019
Writing Break with Kenneth Steven
Creative Writing

Kenneth Steven comes from a family of writers and is a well known poet, novelist, and children's author with many books in print. A Scottish writer, he has led many creative writing courses both at home and abroad and very much enjoys working with groups and nurturing would-be writers. Closer to home, Kenneth has been a regular feature over the years at Pitlochry Theatre's Winter Words Festival.

He has years of experience of facilitating creative writing groups of all types, and he seeks first and always to be an encourager.

The days will offer gentle tuition in creative writing. The course is not intended for published writers; it's for those who love the imagination and expressing themselves with words who want to learn to do it even better and in new ways.
